SANTO MARIS LUXURY SUITES & SPA
SANTORINI, GREECE

A short stroll from Oia's carved clifftops, family-run Santo Maris is where only the luckiest visitors find themselves. Inside (and out) it's a labyrinth, with organic gardens, spas and villas springing up around each corner. Plus, it gets sustainability points for its top-notch use of local producers.

ENJOY 'Ice Queen Cryotherapy' at the Anassa Spa. It'll take years off you.

EXPERIENCE 11 courses of garden goodness on the tasting menu at Alios Ilios.

INSTAGRAM An obligatory infinity pool selfie, backed up by the Santorini sunset.

{ CELTIC CHARM }

THE GLASSHOUSE
EDINBURGH, UK

This central bolthole was once named Romantic Hotel of the Year at the Scottish Hotel Awards, and it's not difficult to see why. Outside, a Gothic 170-year-old church exterior gets the Walter Scott vibes cooking nicely, while inside The Snug Bar is the place to nurse a single malt or curated whisky cocktail.

ENJOY Art installations throughout every corner of the hotel and its two-acre garden.

EXPERIENCE Afternoon tea with several Scottish twists.

INSTAGRAM Nearby Calton Hill, which is visible from the private roof terrace.

DETAILS 77 rooms and a 170-plus whisky collection, including several 'enjoy them while they last' limited editions.
